

Guidelines for conducting a programme under the Aegis of Maharashtra Ophthalmological Society (MOS)

Who can conduct a programme under the aegis of MOS:

- District Societies of Maharashtra
- City Societies of Maharashtra
- Medical colleges (private or government)
- Individual owned practices/ institutions if it is free for the participants.
- Formal request letter be emailed to the secretary with cc to the president.
- Scientific programme should be shared (draft acceptable) with the Chairperson Scientific committee
- Ethical compliance
- Creatives must receive prior MOS approval.
- The photographs & names of the President, Secretary, Treasurer & Chairperson scientific committee should be on the flier.
- MOS logo to be used as per guidelines.
- MOS acknowledgement required in:
 - Brochure
 - Backdrop
 - Website
 - Social media
- The help of MOS President & Secretary MOS should be duly acknowledged during the inaugural ceremony. The Hon'ble President of MOS (or other office bearer, if president is not available) should be seated on the dais during the inaugural function & acknowledged.
- MOS bears no financial liability unless separately agreed in writing.
- Ethical compliance is mandatory.
- Organiser indemnifies MOS against legal or financial claims.

CME Credit Compliance:

- If CME credit hours are sought, organisers shall apply to the appropriate Medical Council.
- Organisers shall be responsible for completing all documentation, payment of fees, and compliance requirements within the stipulated timelines.
- Approval under the aegis of MOS does not automatically guarantee CME accreditation.